Broker @Suretraders says nearly all Ross Cameron @DaytradeWarrior clients lost money. Do you think your guru is any different?

The fact is nearly all clients referred to SureTrader by Ross Cameron's "Warrior Trading" services lost money trading at SureTrader, and even if the commission and fees were Zero, they still had a net loss; why?

Where does Suretrader say that nearly all his clients lost money? That screenshot looks like you are the one asking?
